Shizuoka University activity guidelines for the new coronavirus infection (After January 27, 2022)

level	classes	research activities	administrative/technical staff	meeting	students entrance in the campus	extracurricular activities
0	as usual	as usual	as usual	as usual	as usual	as usual
1	Take infection control measures and offer face-to-face classes At-home classes(partly)	Take infection control measures and continue research activities.	Take infection control measures and continue to work as usual.	Take infection control measures and hold face to face meeting.	Take infection control measures and come to campus.	Take infection control measures and all extracurricular activities are possible.
2	Take infections control measures and offer face to face classes At-home classes	Take infections control measures and continue the research activities. Take infections control measures and group activities such as seminar are possible.	Take infections control measures and continue to work as usual. Those who use public transportation or unable to avoid "3Cs" in the working environment can work from home.	Take infection control measures and hold face to face meeting. To use email meetings and online meetings as much as possible.	Take infection control measures and students can come to school for classes, research and extracurricular activities.	Take infection control measures and all extracurricular activities are possible only for the minimun required time.
3	Take infections control measures and offer face to face classes (partly) At-home classes	Take infections control measures and continue the research activities Self restraint of group activities such as seminar	Take infections control measures and continue to work as usual. Those who use public transportation or unable to avoid "3Cs" in the working environment can work from home.	Take infection control measures and hold face to face meeting. To use email meetings and online meetings as much as possible	Take infection control measures and students can come to school for classes, research and extracurricular activities. If students come to campus, they can stay in the shortest amount of time.	Take infection control measures and all extracurricular activities are possible only for the minimun required time. (Limited)
3+	Take thoroughness of infections control measures and offer face to face classes (partly) At-home classes	Take thoroughness of infections control measures and continue the research activities Self restraint of group activities such as seminar. Work-at-home is recommended	Take thoroughness of infections control measures and continue to work as usual. Work-at-home is recommended	Use e-mail or online meetings whenever possible, and conduct face-to-face meetings only when unavoidable, with thorough infection prevention measures in place.	Take thoroughness of infection control measures and students can come to school for classes, research and extracurricular activities. If students come to campus, they can stay in the shortest amount of time.	Take thoroughness of infection control measures and all extracurricular activities are possible only for the minimun required time. (Limited)
4	Only at-home classes	Take thoroughness of infections control measures and continue research activities with the minimum number of people. Research activities at home	Only the minimum number of people come to work to maintain office functions. Work-at-home is recommended	Avoid "3 Cs(confined spaces, crowded places, close contact)" meetings and use email meetings and online meetings.	In principle,all students refrain from coming to campus. If students need to come to campus, they can stay in the shortest amount of time.	Stop all activities
5	Only at-home classes	Research activities at home In principle,faculty members should refrain from coming to campus. The minimun number of peoplle who need to maintain the research assets(creature and precision equipment)are allowed to enter the campus.	The minimun number of staff who need to maintain the campus facilities are allowed to enter the campus.	Only email meeting or online meeting	Ban all students from coming to campus	Stop all activities